London City and Portsmouth fans,

Welcome to Hayes Lane for this afternoon's clash in the Barclays Women's Championship, with everything still to play for this season, it promises to be a thrilling day of football here in South London.

Since we last spoke, the team produced a memorable performance at home (beating Bristol City courtesy of outrageous strikes by Chantelle Boye-Hlorkah and Sofia Jakobsson), fell to defeat on the road (losing a one-goal game against Sunderland AFC), and set the ball rolling in the League Cup (a fixture that is yet to take place, at the time of writing!).

It's been a busy few weeks and we're all excited for today's fixture against Portsmouth, who are looking for their first points since earning promotion to the Championship.

It's worth taking a moment to reflect on that Chaney strike. Scoring from the centre circle is no mean feat — and our No. 33 made it look... easy!? Outstanding.

Anyway, back to today's match. Jocelyn and the players are hoping to bounce back from defeat at Sunderland, a game decided by the finest of margins in the North East.

As you may have seen on social media (Emily Orman's TikTok is worth a follow!), the players have spent the week recovering and planning for today's contest.

And that's where you come in, with your support lifting the team against Newcastle United and Bristol City.

We need you to be loud and proud once again; it makes a real difference and the players truly appreciate it.

Let's make our mark,

Luke James, Programme Editor
